Latest Advances from Hong-kong and Yokohama.

The Sultan Cedes the Zanzibar Coast to Germany.

Pointing Toward War.

LONDON, June 26.—Great importance is attached to Russia's demand upon Turkey for the war indemnity, by the Cabinets of Europe, especially Austria. Russia has been as lenient as Turkey has been lax in the payments stipulated at the close of the Russo-Turkish war, and the arrears now amount to a sum that it is almost hopeless for Turkey to expect to pay. The Sultan, indeed, has virtually disregarded, although he has not formally repudiated, the obligation, and therefore the peremptory demand comes with a force all the more startling. As Turkey cannot fulfill the demand, Russia will have to take satisfaction in some other way. The opinion in Vienna is that the way chosen will be a military one. Meanwhile Austria is making strong military preparations to uphold her influence in the Balkans in the event of a hostile movement on the part of Russia.

A Burned Steamer.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—The steamship City of Rio Janeiro from Hong Kong and Yokohama brings the following advices: The steamer Paoting, Captain Place, which left Shanghai for Hankow, was burned near the Forked Tree on the Yangtze river on May 28th, and Captain Place, second engineer Wilson and some twenty natives were missing and were supposed to have perished. A number of Chinese vessels did good service in picking up the survivors, of whom first officer Christiansen, the second officer and sixty-two natives were found. The vessel was loaded with a general cargo, including several cases of matches. She was fully insured.

Want Another Trial.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Secretary of the Navy has received a telegram from Captain Erben, president of the trial board, saying that the trial trip of the Philadelphia was successful, and that the vessel is now at Cramp's Yards, Penn. This is all the information received by the Department. It is unofficially stated, however, that the vessel developed an average speed of 19.5-20 knots, nearly half a knot in excess of the contract.

The contractors are somewhat dissatisfied with the conditions of the trial, and believing the vessel is capable of higher speed, will ask for another trial.

Loss of a Dutch Steamer.

LONDON, June 27.—The Dutch steamer Prince Frederick, from Amsterdam, was sunk on the night of June 25th in latitude 47° north, longitude 6° west, by a collision with the British steamer Morpessa. The collision occurred during a heavy fog. The Morpessa arrived at Falmouth with her bows stove in and her forepeak full of water. She had on board the crew and 93 passengers of the Prince Frederick. Six lives were lost.

Suit Dismissed.

CHICAGO, June 27.—A sensation was caused here this afternoon by the filing of a stipulation dismissing the suit of Charlton against the Chicago gas trust. It was on this suit that Colonel G. R. Davis was appointed the Receiver, and the dismissal of the suit will end his receivership.

Murderer Executed.

PINE CITY (Minn.), June 27.—At 3:30 this morning, in the county jail, William Brooker was hanged for the murder of his brother-in-law, William Coombs, and wife last November.

Result of Recent Sales.

LONDON, June 27.—The details of the sales on the Scottish coast this week show that nine vessels were wrecked and thirty-five persons were drowned.

Ceded to Germany.

BERLIN, June 27.—The Sultan has consented to cede the Zanzibar coast to Germany.

Firebugs Warned.

ELKO (Nev.), June 26.—Last Tuesday, June 24th, an attempt was made to set fire to the town of Elko. About 12 o'clock midnight Sheriff Barnard discovered three dry-goods boxes on fire in the rear of E. Reinhardt's store. By the aid of the citizens the fire was put out, and it was discovered that the boxes had been saturated with kerosene. The fire was undoubtedly started by incendiaries.

This morning when the people awoke they found placed in most conspicuous places several hundred of the following circulars:

"Fire-bugs, take warning! The gals are ready and hanging ready to begin. Suspicious characters had better give Elko a wide berth. By order of Executive Committee 601."

The citizens are determined that the scenes so often enacted at Fresno and other California towns will not occur here, and if the perpetrators are caught they will be most summarily dealt with.

End of the Blythe Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Attorney Highton finished the closing argument in the Blythe will case to-day, having spoken four days in behalf of Alice, the alleged widow of Thomas Blythe, the millionaire. The trial of this great case began on July 15, 1889, and was to decide the rights of numerous contestants of the will of deceased, who left an estate worth about four million dollars to his alleged illegitimate daughter, Florence. Two hundred and eight witnesses were examined and the depositions of 139 other persons were read. The argument of the case was closed on April 10th.

Remains of a Snow Victim.

SACRAMENTO, June 26.—The Bee's Colfax special says: The remains of a man were found yesterday about 300 yards from the track at Cape Horn. The verdict of the Coroner's Jury was that the body was that of an unknown man, who came to his death by unknown means. It is presumed the man was caught in one of the snowstorms of last winter. The head was about twelve feet from the body. One dollar and forty cents were found in his pockets. Wild animals or hogs mutilated the remains so that nothing but the bones were left.

To Be Immediately Relieved.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Secretary Windom has written a letter to the United States Appraiser at New York, inclosing a copy of the report of the committee appointed to investigate the charges against Dr. Edward Sherer, and saying: "The Department concurs in the conclusion of the committee, and you are instructed to relieve Dr. Sherer immediately from the charge of the sugar laboratory and assign another chemist to the duty of polarizing sugars at your port."

A Discouraging Report.

PARIS, June 27.—The committee sent to Panama to investigate the condition of the canal has made a further report on the prospects of the enterprise. The committee says the construction of the canal on the calculated level would occupy twenty years and cost 1,747,000,000 francs. In the opinion of the committee the work can only be completed on the basis of an international agreement or a syndicate of the States interested.

Strike Ended.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The strike on the Illinois Central Railroad was settled this afternoon. The men go back to work on the compromise that they withdraw their demand for the dismissal of Division Superintendent Russell, and the company takes from him the power to hire or discharge men.

As Ketcham was not present, Dockery was permitted by unanimous consent to enter a motion leaving it pending for the present.

The consideration of the election bill was resumed and Haugen of Wisconsin addressed the House in its support.

The bill was further discussed by Covert and Flower of New York in opposition to it.

Robbers Captured.

These two men admit that they did the work and kept quiet in the mountains most of the day, intending to evade the officers under cover of night.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—Advices from Erzerum regarding the trouble in that city state that a detachment of Turkish soldiers searched a church yesterday morning, are now safely in jail here. Probable Murder.

UKIAH (Cal.), June 26.—A report reached here to-day that A. S. Ray of Blue Rock, 90 miles north of here, had been murdered. He left home two days ago to drive up some hogs. His friends became alarmed at his long absence and followed him. In a cabin ten miles from Blue Rock they found considerable blood and a quantity of gray hair resembling Ray's whiskers. Nothing further has been heard. The Sheriff left yesterday to investigate.

The Unification of the Northwest.

Hon. Francis G. Newlands, in an address delivered in Salt Lake recently, called attention to the importance of unifying the Northwestern States, both in party organization and in legislative action. He also addressed the people of Denver on the same subject. In his Salt Lake address Mr. Newlands said:

We witnessed during the past winter an evidence of the great power that can be exercised by unity of action upon the part of a few States. As an illustration of it, I will state that as this outrage was committed in the House, or was about to be committed, when the caucus bill was to come before the House, a reporter of a Washington paper interviewed me with reference to the silver situation, as a member of the National Committee. Of course, I was not in a very good temper, and I denounced in unmeasured terms; and, in the course of the conversation, I declared that I was tired of seeing the legislation of the country controlled by men whose vision did not extend west of Wall street, and I declared that if I were in Congress or in the Senate I would hold up the tariff bill until the East did justice to the West; that the East was demanding protection of its industries from Western States, which had no industries to protect, and that a fair division of the beneficence of legislation required that they should deal honestly and justly with the West in regard to a measure so largely affecting the prosperity of mankind. I was told by the proprietor of the Post that the Secretary of the Treasury was very much discomposed by that utterance. He sent for one of the Western Senators, and wished to know whether there was anything in that—whether there was any chance of the West denying the East this tariff bill until the Silver bill was settled, and expressed great anxiety about it; and the Western man told him he thought there was. That interview was followed by numerous telegrams sent to the Silver Committee to all our Western States, asking them to call upon the Republican committees, State and county, to request their Senators to hold the tariff bill until a satisfactory silver bill was passed. That movement was almost unanimous upon the part of the various Republican committees, and strengthened the hands of your Senators in Congress. They took a braver stand by reason of it, and I have no doubt that it was the anxiety of the Eastern men upon that very subject that produced these frequent consultations and conferences with us with reference to an adjustment, and if we win this fight I think it will be largely due to the determination of the Western Senators to yield an inch to the East until the West was satisfied.

Now, of course, that is not ideal legislation, but it is practical legislation, and in a matter so large as this, with such varied interests, with interests clashing, almost all legislation must be a compromise; and my experience in life is that the man gets the best compromise who makes the best fight. So I urge upon these Western States the wisdom of considering how far they can unify the Northwest on all matters relating to legislation. We have all been divided. We are now increasing in numbers; our population is increasing; two more States will be added soon. What reason is there that the Northwest of to-day and the Northwest of the future as the Northwest of Cass' time, when Michigan, away upon the verge of civilization, had a commanding influence in the councils of the Nation? You remember how potent the West was even of the Mississippi—in those days when it was the extreme West of the country; and there is no reason why the Northwest should not be as potent in the future as the extreme West of forty or fifty years ago. We should go into our national conventions, both Republican and Democratic, with a Presidential candidate. We can furnish just as good timber, and better timber, than they can in the East; for I contend that the Western statesmen, such men as Stewart, Jones and Teller, are infinitely superior to Eastern statesmen in their comprehensive views and wants and requirements of the country. [Applause.]

As I heard an Arizona man express it to a Boston dude, who had been West, and who was rather astonished, in a patronizing kind of way, at the development of the West, he said: "My friend, we know more than you do to Boston; for we not only know everything that is east of Boston, but we know everything that is west of it." And that is the case with our Western statesmen. They not only know everything with reference to the wants and requirements of the country east of Wall street, but they know everything west of Wall street, and thereby live the board of statesmanship that characterizes the Western Senator and the Western Representative, that does not characterize the Eastern Senator and Representative.

So as I: whenever we have national conventions, either Democratic or Republican, let us go there with a Presidential candidate. Let us agree among ourselves upon some man and push him—push him vigorously. If we don't win we can secure prominence; we will secure prominence in Cabinet appointments, and in other appointments which will increase the power of the West. As it is, we have not a single Western man in the Cabinet—not one. They have a man from St. Louis they call a Western man, but we repudiate him. [Applause.]

This Territory is now making great advances toward larger population, wealth and prosperity, and I have no doubt that within a short time we will be admitted as a State, and I trust that the people of this State of Utah will unite with the people of other States of the Northwest in the unification of the Northwest, with a view to making it a power in the legislation of the country. [Applause.]

of the fire for our Eastern neighbor so long that they seem to run of an idea that all that is necessary is to crack the party whip and the Northwest will fall into line on any question, no matter whether it is against our best interests or not. The best way to get that idea out of their heads is as Mr. Newlands suggests—for this section to present a solid front and demand our rights. Let the Republicans put up Senator Teller and the Democrats Congressman Clunie, or some other equally brainy Western men, for the Presidency, and go to the convention as a unit, and, our word for it, the East would lose no time in conciliating the West. If our interests lie in a different direction from our Eastern allies we must protect them by manifestations and go well armed and equipped for the battle. The question should be agitated from the stump and through the press until the Western States are satisfied. Then, and not till then, can we hope for much relief. We understand that a Northwest Association has been already organized by the Senators and Congressmen of this section in Washington.

An Old Soldier's Story. In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their service to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bonding, Halsey, Ore. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Unpleasantness Avoided. Several months ago, Mr. Henry Plummer of Clements, Cal., who is subject to cramps, was taken with a severe attack. He had been accustomed to get relief by doing with morphine, but the disagreeable effect that followed would make him miserable for hours after the cramp had been relieved. I persuaded him to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was much pleased with its effect as it was almost instantaneous, and no disagreeable after effects accompanied its use. Chas. Hanger, Manager, Farmers' Trade Union, Clements, Cal. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Merit Wins. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's Arnic Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merit. Wm. Finnerger, druggist.

On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggists a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. "HELD BY THE ENEMY."

The Great War Drama To Be Played in Reno.

Paradoxical as it may seem, there is good authority for the statement that every audience which has yet witnessed Gillette's great war play has left the theater after the performance literally "Held by the Enemy." The reason for this is the inherent fascination of the play for all beholders. This is unquestionably the truth, which the remarkably successful record of the piece clearly proves. The play in plot, execution, dramatic effect and thrilling climaxes is more than its managers modestly claim for it. It has a story of intense interest, pure and refined in tone, told of one of the most thrilling events of American history, and placed before the public in a manner which only careful attention and a large outlay of money can secure.

"Held by the Enemy" will be seen here at McKissick's Opera House tomorrow evening. There will be a special matinee Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

HINT TO ADVERTISERS.

If Too Poor to Advertise They are Too Poor to do Business.

Every established local newspaper receives subscriptions from large cities which puzzle the publishers to account for, but the New York Times lately threw some light upon this matter: "A wholesale grocer in this city, who has become rich at the business, says his rule is that when he sells a bill of goods on credit to immediately subscribe for the local paper of his debtor. So long as his customer advertised liberally he rested, but as soon as he began to contract his advertising space he took the fact as evidence that there was trouble ahead, and invariably went for the debtor. Said he: 'The man who is too poor to make his business known is too poor to do business.' The withdrawal of an advertisement is evidence of weakness that business men are not slow to act upon. There's nothing like it."

A DOG HONORED

For Stopping Runaway Horses in the City of Paris.

A large Parisian dog named Bacchus has been awarded a collar of honor by the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for its courage in stopping runaway horses in the streets of the French capital. The last achievement of the dog was to stop a runaway team which was attached to a hack which was dashing through one of the principal thoroughfares with passengers seated in the vehicle. As soon as the dog caught up with the runaway team he seized one of the horses' bridles, but was shaken off. He then made another leap and seized one of the runaways by the nostrils and held on until the team stopped. Bacchus has a record of stopping a hundred runaways in the above manner.

A Strip of Red Snow.

The Downville (Cal.) Messenger has the following: Between this place and the Red Oak mine is a strip of about one hundred yards in width of red snow. On the surface the color is not so plain as below the surface, but is plain enough to enable one to trace the color strip some distance both down from where the trail crosses it. Dig down ten inches and the sides of the depression appear about the color of red ink. No cause for this can be seen.

Going Out of Business.

As will be seen by reference to another column, Thomas Barnett, one of the pioneer clothiers of Western Nevada, offers for sale his dwelling house, building lots, horses, buggy and harness, and his entire stock of clothing, boots, shoes and men's and boys' furnishing goods, all of which he offers at bedrock prices. He will also give a long lease of his brick store on the corner of Commercial Row and Virginia street.

A Misunderstanding.

Tickets to Steamboat next Sunday will be sold at 50 cents. A misunderstanding between the V. & T. Company and those interested made the ad. read 25 cents. The price asked is half the regular Sunday rates, and a large number intend taking advantage of the low fare and visit Steamboat on the train for the accommodation of the Hastings' Band picnicers.

Heavy Stock Losses.

The Winnemucca Silver State of the 26th inst. says: Hon. George Watt of Lander passed west last evening on his way to San Francisco. His losses in cattle, sheep and horses last winter aggregated about $100,000, but he is not discouraged. He has spent 41 years on the Pacific Coast, and is yet hearty and energetic, and hopes to fully recuperate in a few years.

First Grade Certificates.

A very thorough examination of teachers closed last evening and resulted in granting first grade certificates to Miss Lottie J. Mapes, Ida Mapes, Sarah Wright and Katherine D. Linn, and Messrs. W. C. Hancock and W. E. Barney.

A Wood Drive.

The Carson Tribune of the 26th inst. says: Sam Longabaugh started his wood drive from Markleville yesterday morning under very favorable circumstances. He will run 20,000 cords and probably more to Empire City.

It is a fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, salt-rheum and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood, overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

The New Brazilian Government.

The Brazilian legislative body is to consist of 63 Senators and 200 Delegates. When the new body meets and becomes thoroughly organized, the Provisional Government will place in its hands the functions of the Government, exercised since the inauguration of the republic. The Constitution adopted, and which is subject to revision by the legislative body when it first meets, is similar to that of the United States, with exceptions that have been necessitated. The President holds his office six years, and will be ineligible to re-election ten years succeeding.

Successful Illinoisans.

When it comes to "hunting," the residents of Illinois feel at once at home. The Government of New South Wales recently offered $125,000 as a prize for the best device for exterminating rabbits in that part of Australia. Among the 4,000 people who responded was J. W. Funk, who lives near Bloomington, Ill. He has been asked to go there and show his invention, and it is thought his device will fill the requirements. From the World's Fair to a rabbit-trap is a wide step, but both seem to be all right in Illinois.

Natural Gas Flow.

While H. L. Williams was boring an artesian well for water at Summerland, five miles from Santa Barbara, Cal., a flow of gas was struck, which continued to increase after going ten feet, and at a depth of thirty-three feet the pressure is forty pounds to the square inch. There is a project suggested to supply Santa Barbara with light and fuel.

A Lonely Occupation.

Peter Lechner is known as the most lonely man in Europe. He is connected with the weather bureau service and is stationed on the top of the Schönblick Mountains, in the Austrian Alps. There he lives month in and month out. It is the custom of the villagers on Christmas day to cut out their way up and bring him presents. Throughout the year this is the only time he sees a human face.

Destructive Storm.

A Colusa (Cal.) dispatch says: The heavy storm Tuesday originated somewhere west of Sites, in the foothills, and was about three miles in width. The damage to fruit and vegetables will be in the neighborhood of $25,000; to the grain crop not less than $75,000. The damage to buildings, furniture, goods, etc., in Colusa is about $2,000.

A Fine Store.

A. Nelson's new cigar and tobacco store, next to John Sunderland's clothing department, will be ready for occupancy on the 25th inst., at which time Mr. Nelson will move from his present location.

Be on Hand.

All who wish to take part in the "horribles" on the Fourth are respectfully invited to be present at R. C. Leeper's shop to-morrow evening.

A Matter of Interest to Travelers.

Tourists, emigrants and mariners find that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicinal safeguard against unhealthy influences, upon which they can implicitly rely, since it prevents the effects that an unhealthy climate, vitiated atmosphere, unaccustomed or unwholesome diet, bad water or other conditions unfavorable to health would otherwise produce. On long voyages, or journeys by land in latitudes adjacent to the equator, it is especially useful as a preventive of the febrile complaints and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, which are apt to afflict natives of the temperate zones sojourning or traveling in such regions, and is an excellent protection against the influence of extreme cold, sudden changes of temperature, exposure to damp or extreme heat. It not only cures indigestion, but also prevents fever, and other diseases of a malarial or septic character. In fact, which has been reported from every part of North and South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Australia and other countries.

PERSONAL.

J. T. Davis of Mound House was in town this morning.

University Regent E. T. George arrived on this morning's express.

The party given at Washoe Brewery Hall on June 14th was by Mr. and Mrs. George Christensen of Floriston and H. Block and his young bride of Reno.

Captain Rawlins, for many years the Virginia City agent of the Pioneer Stage Company, now a resident of Mexico, passed east this morning, accompanied by his daughter.

Miss May Easterbrook, who for the past two years has been the railroad agent and telegraph operator at Hot Springs, has resigned, and will leave next Sunday for Oakland, Cal., where she has accepted a situation in the Western Union office.

HE WAS ASHAMED

To Ask Again, but His Frank Letter Got It for Him.

A few months ago one of the unfortunate inmates in the San Francisco Alms House was inspired by the sensational statements in the newspapers with the belief that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla would help him. But without money, how to get it was the question. Finally he wrote to the Edwin W. Joy Co., appealing to their generosity, and it was not unheeded, the correct preparation being sent by the next parcel delivery. Its effect is best told in a subsequent letter, from which we quote the following:—

"I suppose you know me by this writing, and my circumstances and condition. Although improving, I ask of your generosity for another bottle of your Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. I feel ashamed to ask in this way, but what shall I do? I thought I might not need any more, but I am now anxious to keep it up, but you see how it is."

It was sent, and he can get more if he needs it.

A Railroad Pass.

The Savannah News says: A pass issued Wednesday to a bridal party over the Jacksonville, St. Augustine and Halifax Railroad, gotten up especially for the occasion, read as follows: "What fools these mortals be," then the words: "Pass Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Waite from St. Augustine to perpetual bliss. Not good after divorce."

The English Drink.

In 1888 the English drink bill amounted to £124,615,836, or, computed in our currency, a fraction over $623,000,000. In 1889 increased to £132,213,277, or, in round numbers, $661,000,000. The increased expenditure on wine and foreign spirits was $5,000,000 and on beer and British spirits $32,500,000.

Declined to Accept.

W. H. Bush of Montezano, recently appointed receiver of the land office at Olympia, Wash., has declined to accept of the position of Sheriff of Chinook county, and finds the latter office more lucrative.

Some Census Figures.

Census returns show the population of St. Louis is 435,000, or 75,000 less than the most conservative estimate. St. Paul has about one hundred and eighty-five thousand and is dissatisfied because Minneapolis has succeeded in making a larger count.
